

Peer 2 Peer Education Peer Educator Application Form

Peer2Peer Education CIC (P2P) deliver workshops to schools, PRU's and other youth related establishments. Sessions are delivered by experienced and fully qualified youth workers aged 19-30 who have received extensive training in the relevant subjects, Safeguarding and Child Protection policies. Our staff are kept up to date with government legislation and local authority work relating to P2P's subject matter, enabling the work of P2P to enhance each boroughs' respective council policies and strategies. All sessions are mapped to the National Curriculum and are evaluated to continuously improve standards.

The Peer Educator must deliver all P2P lessons to their full potential and following the P2P lesson plans. You will also ensure P2P's ethos remains at the forefront of all external and internal communications. You will also use P2P's language at all times.
